SHORT ANSWER

Please answer the following questions in 250 words or less.

1. Why are you interested in food media?
2. What area of food media are you most interested in (print/books/magazines, blogging and online media, video, radio, visual art/design, etc.)? You can list more than one. Tell us why this area interests you, and mention any relevant experience in this area.
Please be specific. As much as possible we tailor the program to meet our students needs—this is your chance to let us know your interests.
3. Describe a time that you worked collaboratively in a group. What was the experience like for you?
4. What do you hope to get out of the LongHouse Internship Program? Why is this program a good choice for you for you personally, academically and/or professionally now?

5. Please describe the career of your dreams. What is your job? Where do you live?
6. Please describe any special skills you bring. Are you handy with a hammer or a paintbrush or have any special expertise we should know of?

ESSAY QUESTION

Please answer the following prompt in 500 words or less.

Describe a memorable experience you had with food, cooking, farming or eating. Describe the scene in detail. Tell us what you saw, smelled, tasted, heard, felt. Be creative and show us what kind of writer you are.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Please attach a FULL RESUME that includes all relevant work, volunteer, education and internship experience, as well as any relevant awards, or extracurricular activities.

Please attach TWO (2) WRITTEN REFERENCES that can speak to your professional or academic experience. At least one should be from a former or current boss or professor.

Please attach any RELEVANT MATERIALS that speak to your work in food media, such as writing clips, links to articles, blogs, video or radio work, etc.

Please send all application materials to scholars@cooknscibble.com in a single document in either .doc, .docx or .pdf format. Please use your full name as the title of the document.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: APRIL 15

If we receive your application by March 15 and you are selected for the program, you are eligible for a 10% discount on the total cost of tuition. Applications received after April 15th will be reviewed as space permits.
